

Reader's Advisory Beyond the Interview

Kimberly Hirsh, MAT, MSLS

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
School of Information and Library Science

Agenda

- Virtual Reader's Advisory
- Passive Reader's Advisory

Virtual Reader's Advisory

Form-Based Reader's Advisory

My Next 5

Get personalized reading recommendations from Durham County Library. Simply complete the form below to tell us a little about what genres, books, and authors you like (or dislike). A DCoL librarian will review your submission and reply within three days with a list of the next five books you should read!

You can ask for recommendations for any type of book: children's, teen, or adult — fiction or nonfiction.

Name *

Email address *

Library Card Number *

Please enter the full 14-digit number on the back of your library card.

Tell us about a few books and/or authors you've enjoyed and what you liked about them. Also feel free to tell us about books you haven't liked, and why. What are you in the mood to read next? *

BookTok

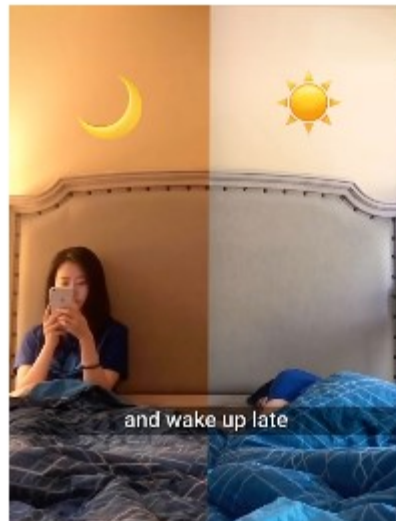

#booktok

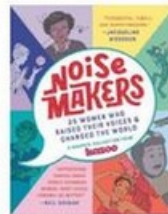

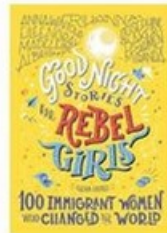

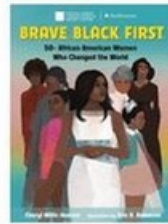

6.2B views

Literature lovers, welcome to #Booktok 📖

Bookstagram

durhamcountylibrary • Follow

durhamcountylibrary Happy Women's History Month! Here are some non-fiction books for kids about incredible women who shook things up and changed the world. Click the link in our bio for the full list!

#WomensHistoryMonth #DCoLreads
#womenmakinghistory #dcolibrary

4w

22 likes

MARCH 1

Add a comment...

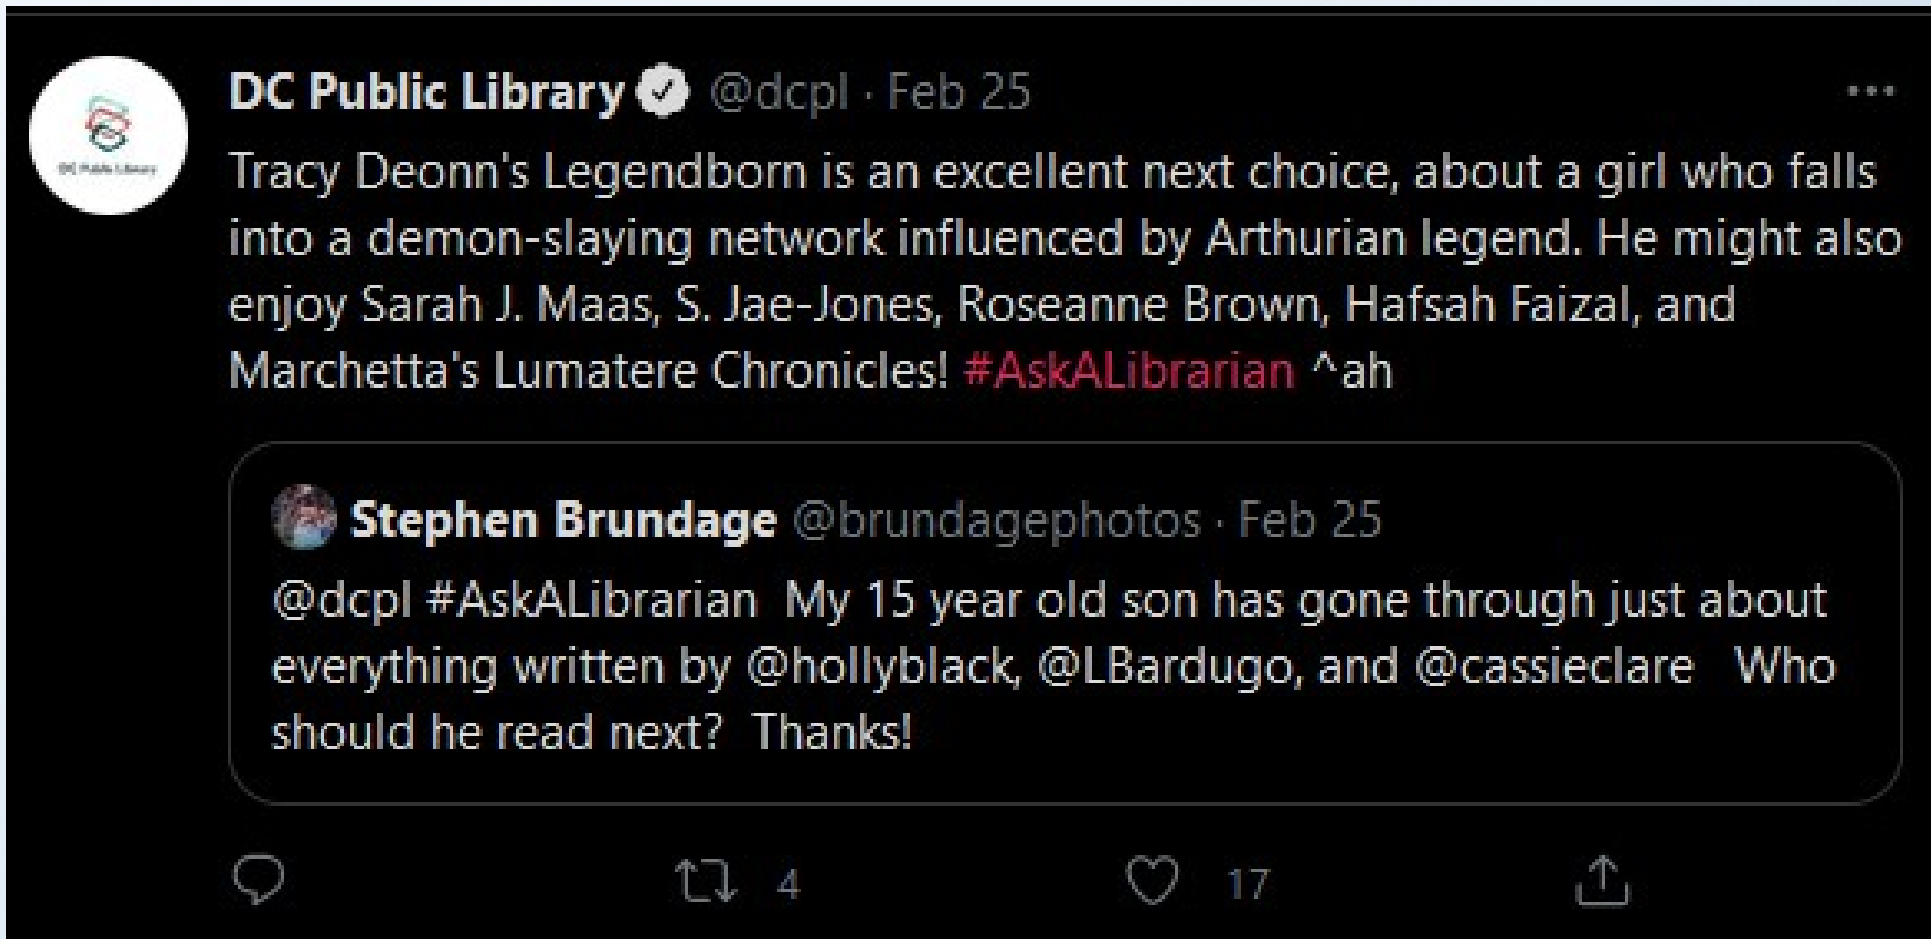

Post

BookTube

Twitter

Explore!

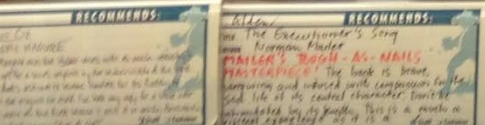

Pick your favorite social media platform from those discussed and explore the world of books and libraries there.

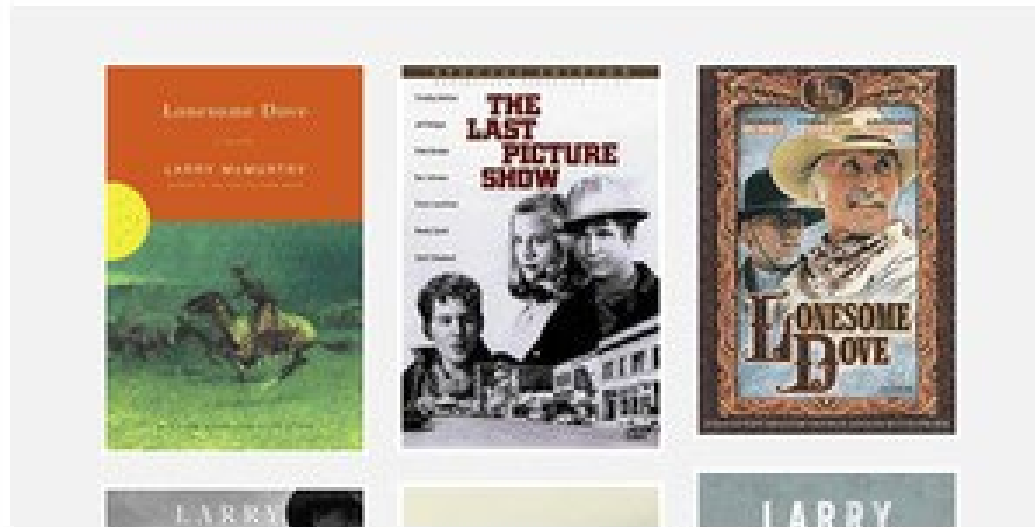

Passive Reader's Advisory

The image shows a wooden bookshelf with two rows of books. The top row includes titles like 'Sinclair Lewis', 'Neil Lyndon', 'Alan Lightman', 'Jessica Lott', and 'Javier Marías'. The bottom row features 'Norman Mailer', 'Thomas Mallon', 'Hilary Mantel', and 'Javier Marías'. Several small white cards with handwritten recommendations are placed between the books. The cards contain text such as 'RECOMMENDS: This is a great book...', 'This is a great book...', and 'This is a great book...'. The books are arranged in a way that shows their spines, with some titles clearly visible and others partially obscured.

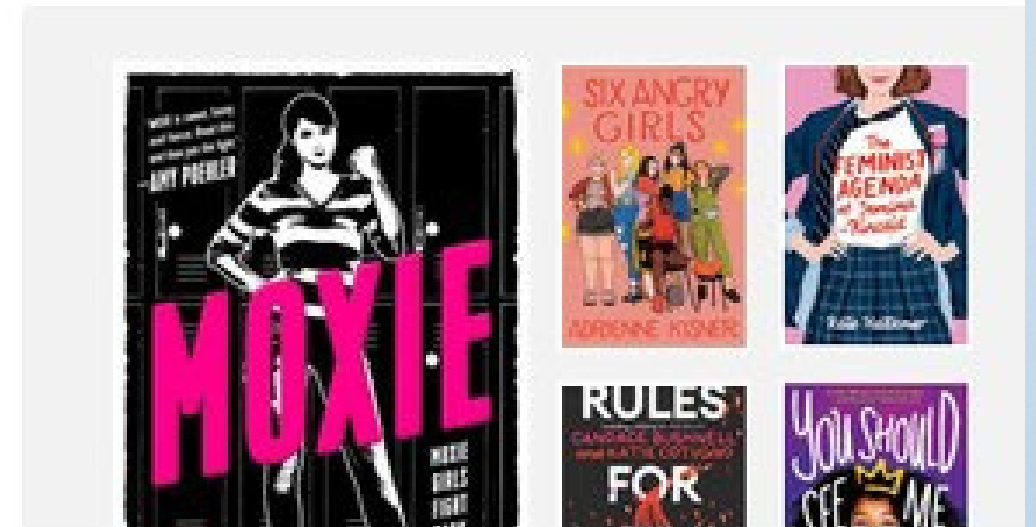

Book Lists

In Memoriam - Larry McMurtry »

by ChuckE_DCol

GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS

Moxie »

by CarolineP_DCol

IF YOU LIKED ...

Displays

Practice!

Pick one of the three methods of passive reader's advisory and storyboard an example of it. What is your theme? What are some titles you might include? Where would you go to find more?

Review

- There are many ways to provide reader's advisory beyond interviews.

Review

- Virtual reader's advisory can take place on the library website.

Review

- You can find librarians, other book people, and thus opportunities and examples for RA on just about any social media platform.

Review

- The physical library space can be used for RA as well in the form of displays and staff recommendations.

